

MARISSA MESSENGER.

VOLUME XIII.

MARISSA, ILL., FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1900.

NUMBER 36.

MOTTO FOR 1900

Highest Quality at Popular Prices!

Now with a long pull and a strong pull and a pull all together—we ask our friends to let us be their druggist for 1900, and we assure you that we will do our part by being prepared at all times to supply your demands.

A Few of our Bargains for this Week

Thatcher's Glycerine Soap for chapped hands 5 cents
15c cake Jap Rose Glycerine Soap 10 cents
Edelweis Cream (for the hands) 25c bottle for 20 cents
2-qt. Fountain Syringe (good) 65 cents
And many other bargains.

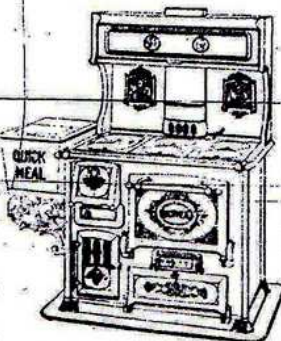

N. P. JENSEN & CO.

You Can't Afford to Experiment

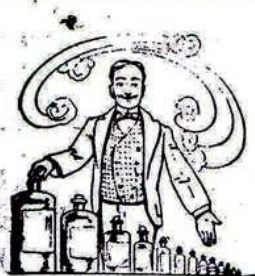

by buying a range when you do not have proof of its reliability. We have dozens of customers who will testify as to the merits of the Quickmeal.....

a range that has stood the test and demonstrated its superiority over all others. If you are thinking of purchasing a range you could not do better than get a "Quickmeal." Sold by

S. S. BOYLE.

Knowing Drug Values.

It is our knowledge of drug values that enables us to help you, and to give you

RIGHT QUALITIES

as well as

RIGHT QUANTITIES.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL

TRAINS SOUTH.
Arrive Marissa 8:30am 8:13pm 10:40pm
TRAINS NORTH.
Leave Marissa 8:10am 9:25am 9:40am
For information, regarding through rules tickets, etc., call on R. W. Singleton, Agt. U. C. McCarty, Div. Pass. Agt., St. Louis. A. H. HANCOCK, G. P. A. Chicago, Ill.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

D. R. A. P. COULTER,
Physician and Surgeon.

M. H. McMurdo, Attorney at Law and Notary Public.

Wirts & Peyton, THE DENTISTS.

of Pinckneyville, Ill.,
will visit Marissa every Friday.
Office in Hamilton's new building.

Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Prices moderate
All work warranted.

—Mr. Charles Lamb visited friends in Marissa the first of the week.

—Mr. George Wilson of Belleville visited friends in Marissa Thursday.

—Misses Nellie and Lottie Mitze came down from St. Louis to spend New Year's with home folks.

—Misses Edie and Minnie Torrens of Tilden, visited with Mr. E. D. McLean and family Wednesday.

—Messrs. Charlie Blackford and Harry Sapington of St. Louis, spent New Year's day with Marissa friends.

—Mrs. Amanda Wierching of St. Louis, visited relatives here this week, returning home Wednesday evening.

—Misses Marian Jones and Nora West, after a short visit with Miss Laura Hill, returned to Belleville Tuesday.

—Mr. Henry Hanson and little daughter Tillie of Coulterville, visited this week with Mr. James Hanson and family.

—Prof. Robt. J. Nicoli returned to Marissa Tuesday morning, after spending the holidays with his folks in Tarkio, Mo.

—Mr. Fitts and Miss Brown of Pinckneyville, spent Monday evening in Marissa, the guests of Mr. Thos. Gray and family.

—Mr. Bub Allen, who is attending medical college in St. Louis, was home for the holidays, returning Wednesday evening.

—Messrs. James and Robert Hemphill spent New Year's day in Pinckneyville, visiting with Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Ritchie.

—Mr. John Kees, who has been spending the holidays with his folks, returned to Ewing, Tuesday morning, where he is attending College.

—Mr. John M. Stuart who has been visiting friends and relatives in —Mr. Frank Wylie has purchased a half interest in Lindsay's photography gallery and hereafter the business will be conducted under the name of Lindsay & Wylie.

—Tell all your friends and acquaintances and send word to those you do not see, that the 21st series of Marissa Building and Loan stock is now open for subscription.

—Mr. James C. Wylie and Mrs. Hugh Nairn, who were called here on account of the death of their mother, Mrs. Wylie, left this morning for their homes in Girard, Kan.

—Live agents wanted to handle the Summer's Harness Repair Outfits in this and adjoining counties. $3.50 to $7 per day guaranteed. See the general agents at the Commercial Hotel.

—Mr. Alex Bickett of Tilden, was a caller Wednesday. Mr. Bickett informs us that he was quite successful with his poultry exhibit at the recent annual Egyptian Poultry Show held at Nashville.

—Goodwin & Kenten of Burlington, Wis., are here introducing the Summer's Harness Repair Outfits. These gentlemen certainly have an article of merit and take great pleasure in showing it to anybody.

—Mr. Phil Meng has recently purchased the Dapros restaurant. He now has charge of both the barber shop and restaurant—the two rooms adjoining. Mr. Ed. McLean will take care of the restaurant and customers will be treated in the very best manner.

—Messrs. Goodwin & Kenten, Gen'l Agts. for Summer's Shoe and Harness Repair Outfits, are at the Commercial Hotel and will be here for some time in order to establish agents in this locality. The commodity which they propose to put on the market is a sure seller, and if you are interested you should see them soon.

—Rev. R. W. McBride returned last Monday from Xenia Prairie, where he held an eight days' meeting and conducted communion services for the U. P. congregation of that locality. He reports a good meeting and eight names added to the membership of the congregation. Rev. McBride left this morning for the East, where he has appointments to preach.

—I have for sale two fine Hornless Jersey calves, their sire is Goldenrod, a full Registered Hornless Jersey, having taken 48 premiums at Ohio state and county fairs. His sire was never beaten but once and was exhibited at scores of fairs. The mother of the sire of these calves has a record for milk and butter that is among the very best. For particulars and prices call on address R. C. REDPATH, Baldwin, Ill.

Furniture

—OF ALL KINDS—

Wall Paper,

Window Shades,

Carpets of all sorts,

Sewing Machines and

Needles,

Mattresses,

Bedsprings,

Pictures and Frames,

Curtain Poles,

Drapery Chains,

Oil Cloth and Matting,

Picture Molding,

and

Undertakers' Supplies

will be found

at all times, day or night, at

Alex Stewart's,

MARISSA, ILL.

—Money to loan on improve farms in sums to suit.
S. H. MONROE & Co.
St. Louis, Mo.

—Miss Nellie Curry, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Marissa, returned to St. Louis Tuesday morning. Miss Curry intends to take a course in shorthand at Rubicon Shorthand College of St. Louis.

—Two of our local heavy weight fought a 1-round draw Thursday. The scrimmage was not according to Marquis of Queensbury rules and was declared a draw. We understand the affair will be aired in the Police Magistrate's Court this afternoon.

—The next lecture of the Young People's Course will be given in Temperance Hall Jan. 12. Rev. J. Chesnut of Coulterville, having been secured by the Christian Endeavor Society of the R. P. Church for that date. Rev. Chesnut is a Quaker. Don't fail to hear him.

—The Brotherhood of Workmen will also meet